

WHAT METER ARE YOU CURRENTLY USING?	WHAT MEDICATIONS ARE YOU TAKING?	WHAT DOES THIS DECISION MEAN FOR YOU?	WHO CAN HELP YOU CHANGE YOUR METER?
 CareSens N or CareSens N POP, testing for glucose	Insulin and/or sulphonyurea tablets (ie glibenclamide, gliclazide or glipizide) Metformin or any other medication	You will not need to change the meter you use. If you have Type 1 diabetes and are testing for blood ketones with another meter, you may be eligible to switch to a CareSens Dual. You will not need to change the meter you use.
 CareSens II, testing for glucose	Insulin and/or sulphonyurea tablets (ie glibenclamide, gliclazide or glipizide) Metformin or any other medication	You will need to change the meter you use. You are eligible to change to one of the funded CareSens meters. If you have Type 1 diabetes and are testing for blood ketones with another meter, you may be eligible to switch to a CareSens Dual You will need to change the meter you use if you need to keep testing your blood glucose.	Your community pharmacist can provide you with a new meter from the CareSens range for free. You can contact Pharmaco, the supplier of CareSens meters on support@pharmacodiabetes.co.nz or 0800 GLUCOSE and they can provide you with a CareSens N meter
 Freestyle Optium/Freestyle Optium Neo, testing for glucose and ketones	You have access to Freestyle Optium blood glucose test strips through a Special Authority because you were using insulin and testing for ketones prior to 1 June 2012	You will need to change the meter you use. You are eligible to change to one of the funded CareSens meters. The CareSens Dual tests for both blood glucose and ketones.	Your community pharmacist can provide you with a new meter from the CareSens range for free.
 Freestyle Optium, testing for ketones only	You are using this meter for ketone testing alone or in conjunction with a CareSens meter for blood glucose testing	You will need to change the meter you use to the CareSens Dual meter. The CareSens Dual tests for both blood glucose and ketones.	Your community pharmacist can provide you with a new CareSens Dual meter for free
 Accu-Chek Performa, testing for glucose	You have access to this meter through a Special Authority because you were using an Accu-Chek Combo Insulin pump prior to 1 June 2012	You will need to change the meter you use. You are eligible to change to one of the funded CareSens meters. The CareSens Dual tests for both blood glucose and ketones	Your community pharmacist can provide you with a new meter from the CareSens range for free
 Sensocard blood glucose test strips, testing for glucose for the visually impaired	You are using funded SensoCard blood glucose test strips with your voice meter	You will not need to change the meter or test strips you use.

CareSens N

CareSens N POP

CareSens N Premier

CareSens Dual

